

Let's Follow Bicycle Rules

Penalties apply from April 2026 to people aged 16 and over.

Do not use a mobile phone while riding a bicycle.

Fine: ¥12,000

Do not hold an umbrella while riding a bicycle.

Fine: ¥5,000

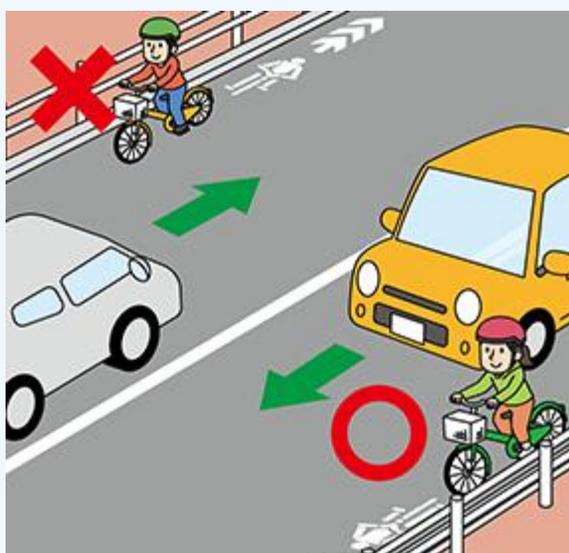

Do not ride bicycles side by side.

Fine: ¥3,000

Do not ride with two people on one bicycle. Fine: ¥3,000

Bicycles must ride on the left side of the road. Riding on the right side may result in a fine of ¥6,000.

Do not ride a bicycle after drinking alcohol.

When you see a stop (止まれ) sign, you must always stop your bicycle. After stopping, first check left and right for safety before going. Not stopping at a stop sign may result in a fine of ¥5,000.

If your lights are not on, it is difficult for others to see you. Dangerous accidents can happen easily. Failure to use lights may result in a fine of ¥5,000.

From early sunset on, turn on your bicycle lights. Also wear safety reflectors. Wearing a helmet increases your safety!

For more information regarding bicycle rules, please visit the National Police Agency homepage. →

It is possible you may also cause an accident. You may be asked to pay money after an accident, so bicycle insurance is recommended. If you cause a traffic accident, call 110. Do not leave the scene before a police officer arrives.